

U.S. Embassy Dakar, Senegal Warden Message - Civil Unrest

June 23, 2011

Due to civil unrest resulting from demonstrations surrounding the Assemblée Nationale in the plateau area of Dakar, U.S. Embassy Dakar is closing consular operations until further notice, except for emergency American Citizen Services. The Embassy has drawn down to essential personnel for today, June 23, 2011. The situation will be reassessed by close of business today for tomorrow June 24, 2011. Embassy Dakar will continue to keep American Citizens informed with developments as they arise.

Travel plans should be amended to account for the possibility of protests and/or ensuing violence and delays in these affected areas. We remind U.S. citizens that even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can quickly and without much advance warning turn confrontational and escalate into violence. The Embassy, therefore, urges U.S. citizens to avoid crowds, political gatherings, and street demonstrations, even if they appear to be peaceful, and to exercise caution if within the vicinity of any demonstrations. U.S. citizens should stay current with media coverage of local events and be aware of their surrounding at all times.
